Away Ahead

Of any previous month's business in the history of our Boys' Clothing Department was October, 1995. We sold more goods, we sold better goods than were we sold better goods than were ever sold in this city for boys, both big and little. This department is on the top wave of popularity, and it is to-day the recognized headquarters for Boys' Outfittings, emphasizing more clearly that Our way was the Right way, viz., socel clothing first, then at the smallest price that such dependable clothing could be sold for. A dry goods basis of profit on clothing explains it all. It for any reason you think you can buy clothing as economically elsewhere, then you can be sure that in some way it is inferior—in fit, finish, workmanship or material—something is lacking. We swing into November with case after case, box after box of Clothing, Hars and Furnishings, bought within the past thirty days of them, 14 to 20, and the long Ulsters and Leggings, and Hais, and Caps, and Sweaters, Shirts and Neckwear, Collars and tra pants, short and long ones, and such a supply of little things for boys as will lickle your fancy, and will make you wender Hair Brushes. who could think of all these little details that are usually so hard to find. Don't think they are here by accident. Time, pastience, energy and devotion to this branch of the business have brought it about. If for any reason you have become dissatisfied with your clothing from the cloth- to ing stores, give us an opportunity to show day November Sale, you the difference.
